Inter Tribal Association of Arizona and the Tribal In-House Counsel Association present “Indian Country and the Trump Administration: Key Opportunities and Challenges” on Friday, March 10, 11:30 am – 1:00 pm MST

This webinar, co-sponsored by the Tribal In-House Counsel Association (TICA) and the Inter Tribal Association of Arizona (ITAA) and facilitated by Lewis Roca Rothgerber Christie LLP, will feature speakers from around Indian Country - lawyers and lobbyists - who have on the ground views of what Tribes can expect from the new Trump Administration and Republican-controlled Congress. Topics will include potential federal legislation, impacts on agency tribal consultation, energy and infrastructure regulations, environment, natural and cultural resources, housing, health care, gaming and economic development.

There is no cost to attend the webinar, but you must RSVP to register for CLE credits. Questions regarding the webinar should be addressed to Jill Diamond at (602) 528-4554, or Pilar Thomas at (520) 256-6628.

The TAMS Center is announcing a Call for Nominations for the Virgil Masayesva Tribal Air Programs Excellence Award

(<http://www7.nau.edu/itep/main/tams/>) and for three (3) positions on the TAMS Steering Committee (<http://www7.nau.edu/itep/main/tams/SCommittee/>). The TAMS Center will be accepting nominations until March 10, 2017.

Please feel free to contact the TAMS Center (702-784-8278/8263/8264) if you have any questions.

Public meetings on VW Mitigation Settlement

The second in a series of three public meetings hosted by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency to discuss and seek public input on Minnesota's use of funds from the Volkswagen Mitigation Settlement will take place on Monday, March 6. The meeting is scheduled from 6:30 - 8 pm at Plymouth Congregational Church (in the Jackman Room), 1900 Nicollet Ave, Minneapolis, MN. Enter through door #1 on the LaSalle Street side of the church, then follow signs to the Jackman Room. There's a parking lot by the entrance and street parking available around the church.

The first meeting, held Feb. 23 at the MPCA's St. Paul office, was well attended. Audience members seemed to appreciate the discussion and had good ideas to share with the MPCA.

MPCA will accept public comments regarding the VW settlement until March 31, 2017. All comments will be reviewed and used to help shape Minnesota's Beneficiary Mitigation Plan, which will describe to the federal trustee how the state plans to use the money. If you have any comments you would like us to consider, please e-mail them to vwsettlement.pca@state.mn.us.

The third and final meeting in the series is scheduled for March 15, 6:30 – 8 pm, MPCA Brainerd office, 7678 College Road, Baxter, MN. For more information, visit the MPCA's website (www.pca.state.mn.us/air/volkswagen-settlement).

NTAA/EPA Webinar Series: National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS)

The National Tribal Air Association (NTAA) and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) are co-hosting a three-part webinar series on the National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS) for tribal air agencies.

Under the Clean Air Act (CAA), the EPA is required to set national air quality standards (NAAQS) and review those standards every five years for six common air pollutants (also known as “criteria” air pollutants). There are NAAQS for ground-level ozone (O<sub>3</sub>); particulate matter (PM); carbon monoxide (CO), lead (Pb), sulfur dioxide (SO<sub>2</sub>), and nitrogen dioxide (NO<sub>2</sub>).

These criteria air pollutants are found all across the United States and can harm your health, the environment, and cause property damage.

In this webinar series, you will learn how the EPA: 1) sets, reviews and revises the primary (health) and secondary (environmental) standards; 2) designate areas that are meeting or not meeting these standards; and 3) works with areas to meet and maintain these standards. You will also hear from tribal environmental professionals on their perspectives and experiences with the NAAQS regulatory, designations, and implementation process.

During each 1 ½ hour webinar, there will be an overview presentation of the topic followed by a question and answer session.

Webinar #3: NAAQS - Implementation

(This session will discuss how to attain & maintain the NAAQS and what role the tribes can play in the implementation process.)

Date: Monday, March 20, 2017

Time: 2:00 – 3:30 PM EST

Roots of Wisdom: Native Knowledge. Shared Science.

Over countless years living on the same land, Native peoples have observed and managed their local environments. Today, Native communities around the world face many challenges to their ecosystems and their health, but they have found innovative solutions through combining traditional knowledge, passed down through generations, with modern science to meet these challenges. Roots of Wisdom: Native Knowledge. Shared Science, a traveling banner exhibition developed by the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI), features inspiring stories of ecological restoration from four Indigenous communities: Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, Tulalip Tribes, Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians and the Waikalua Loko Fishpond Preservation Society in Hawaii.

As Native people restore their environments, they are revitalizing their cultural traditions and heritage - and offering answers to other communities. The exhibition was developed, produced, and circulated by: Oregon Museum of Science and Industry, Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service and Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian. ## DOE SunShot Initiative Launches Challenge to Expand Solar Access to More Communities, Including Tribes

In an effort to make solar energy more accessible for every American, the DOE SunShot Initiative has launched the $5 million Solar in Your Community Challenge, a new prize competition that aims to improve solar electricity access for low- and moderate-income households; state, local, and tribal governments; and nonprofit organizations.

The Solar in Your Community Challenge encourages the development of innovative financial and business models that serve low- and moderate-income communities that may have been left out of the solar boom. Offering $5 million in cash prizes and technical assistance over 18 months, the challenge supports teams across the country to develop projects or programs that reach underserved customers in their communities, while proving that these business models can be widely replicated and scaled up.

The early application deadline to participate in the challenge is Jan. 6, 2017, and the regular deadline is March 17, 2017. Learn more about how tribes and other communities can participate in the competition and apply today.

U.S. HUD - HUD recipients can request technical assistance on basically any subject, as long as is it related to NAHASDA. The requests come in to the ONAP Area Office, which typically considers whether the tribe has any other TA needs, and then assembles a TA request package for HQ to consider. From what I have been able to gather, training on indoor air issues has never been requested - but it could be. ONAP has contracts with certain TA providers for these TA requests. Those TA providers may subcontract as needed. The link below names the TA providers and discusses the process.
